Evidence of Net Income (after deductions)

To be eligible for free school meals, your families' annual household income must be no higher than the following:

- £22,700 for families outside of London with one child
- £26,300 for families outside of London with two or more children
- £31,200 for families within London with one child
- £34,800 for families within London with two or more children

This includes any wider income or support you may be receiving in addition to any earnings from employment. You will need to provide documentary evidence as proof of your income for both yourself and partner (where applicable) – this could be a bank statement, a pay slip or an employment contract.

In addition to these thresholds, families must hold no more than £16,000 in capital and savings.

If your visa changes or your earnings rise above the threshold you must inform your child's school of your change in circumstances.

Are you employed?
Do you have a partner?
If yes, is your partner employed?
Is your total annual household income, including earnings from employment and any wider support you may be receiving, less than the maximum income thresholds listed above?
How many children under the age of 18 do you have (including non-school aged children)?
